

The latest investment in business development talent for Austin American Technology
09/06/2016

Leading Electronic Equipment supplier Austin American Technology Corp. announced that Todd Rountree has been appointed Equipment Division Manager. Todd Rountree brings a wealth of business management experience and a strong sales background to AAT. With 20 years of experience, Todd has expertise including; Business Management and Sales and Marketing.

Todd has proven management experience with companies ranging in sales from owning his own small business to working with manufacturing companies ranging from tens to hundreds of millions in annual sales.

With stellar business experience, Todd is a real asset to AAT as they continue to invest in their business development and marketing strategy for growth. In relation to his new appointment, Todd stated “I am excited and energized to take on a role with this great company and to be at the beginning of this next exciting chapter for AAT”.

Steve Stach President of Austin American Technology commented, “As a proven and dynamic leader in our industry, Todd has already been a major contributor to our strategic vision. Todd brings a unique blend of sales management experience and leadership qualities and I am proud and excited to have his caliber of senior management leadership experience and knowledge as part of our AAT team, further highlighting our ongoing mission to attract outstanding talent as we build the AAT of the future.”